Vital Diaconal Ministry

To all deacons in every church in Calvary Presbytery:

The Diaconal Ministries of Calvary Presbytery is offering a training seminar on Saturday, April 13, from 9am-12pm. The MNA National Director for Disaster Response, Arklie Hooten, will be training us and helping prepare us to respond to local and national emergencies. We will also have the North Florida Coordinator, Curt Moore, share about how their Presbytery does Diaconal ministries. We will gather at 8:30 for coffee and doughnuts and then begin promptly at 9:00. A free box lunch will be provided at the end of the training. We ask you to register so we know how many lunches to purchase, so please contact Dan Ratchford at 803-960-6716 by text or phone or by email at dan@smyrnanewberry.com. It would be great if each church had at least one representative present. Look forward to seeing you on April 13.

Dan Ratchford, TE Smyrna PCA in Newberry

SPC Mission Trips

The Missions Committee, with approval and support of the Session of Second Presbyterian Church, has taken on the task this year of sponsoring three Summer Mission Trips. We are well on our way to getting the teams organized and working out the details of the trip. The three teams consist of 20 team members from Second Presbyterian Church. All participants are excited about the opportunity to visit and assist with the Lord's work in England, Cherokee, and Peru. Our Missionaries in these areas are also excited and encouraged about our involvement with their work. Not long ago Rev. Alonzo Ramirez visited Greenville and he expressed his joy and thankfulness for the many visits that we have made to Peru over the years. He expressed the encouragement that these visits bring to him and members of his team in Cajamarca. A similar expression of appreciation has been expressed by the Revs. Kevin Bidwell, Andy Young, and Joshua Reiger from England.

As your Missions Chairman I would like to make an appeal to you the members of Second Presbyterian Church for your help with these mission trips. You can assist by encouraging the team members, praying for them, and giving to the cost of these trips. The team members are working to raise the necessary funds but if you could help it would greatly encourage them. You will also be part of the team.

Donations can be made in support of a team member, to a specific trip (England, Cherokee, or Peru), or to the general Summer Missions program. Please let me know if you have any questions about these Summer Mission Trips.

~Hugh Player, Mission Committee Chairman
