

to be a student of the Bible. Jesus said that if we follow Him, "You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free" (Jn. 8:32).

So let me encourage you to be a motivated student of theology. People are often frightened by the word theology, but all it means is "teaching about God." Jesus said, "This is eternal life: that they might know you, the true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent" (Jn. 17:3). To be sure, Jesus meant more than head knowledge, but he did not mean less than that. To know God we need to know the truth about God. You do not have to be a professional theologian, and I would not recommend most academic theological books to most believers. But we are blessed today with a great wealth of devotional theological books and articles, and it will make a real difference to your life if you will read some of them. Moreover, you should be a keen learner as the Word of God is preached in the church. I consider it my duty to make plain the doctrines of the Bible, and as we preach through books of God's Word, your understanding of theology should be growing. We are particularly blessed to have an excellent church library, so you can grow in your knowledge of God's Word without paying any money. All it will cost you is time and energy, but you will be richly repaid through the increasing knowledge of God.

Let me recommend a few books especially to any who may have scored poorly on the quiz above. J. I. Packer, one of the most gifted theologians of our times, has recently published 18 Words: The Most Important Words You Will Ever Know. I would also recommend Cross Words, by Paul Helm, and Basic Christianity, by John Stott.

May the Lord bless you all this week.

In Christ's Love,
Pastor Rick Phillips

To my dear Church Family:

Thank you for your prayers on my behalf during my recent illness. God has been good to me and I praise Him for His presence and strength day by day. Truly as my days, so has my strength been. Also I have appreciated all the many expressions of love and caring in the many phone calls, visits, food, shopping and running of errands. I do not have words sufficient to appreciate my feelings for your love, so a simple "thank you" is my expression of appreciation to you all. I trust that soon I shall be strong enough to return to worship with you. In the meantime I praise God for the internet as I am able to join in worship during the Sunday worship services and Wednesday night prayer meeting. That has been a real blessing to me.

With deep love, Bobbie Houser

Attention: Ladies

Precepts Bible Study of Hebrews will begin Thursday, September 9, at 9:30 am, in the Conference Room and continue each Thursday through December, 2. Hebrews Part II will follow but one is not a prerequisite for the other. This study requires approximately 5 hours of homework per week. You will reap the reward for your diligence. Please let Mary Russell (phone: 329-1670 or email: erussell1670@charter.net) know as soon as possible if you plan to join.

Good News Clubs

Once again, volunteers are needed to continue our ministry to two local elementary schools. Good News Clubs will start the second week of September, and continue through March. If you are available on Tuesday or Wednesday afternoons from 2-4 pm, please prayerfully consider how the Lord would have you serve Him as we teach and encourage children at Augusta Circle and Hollis Academy. Volunteers can teach, be a grade shepherd (sit with the children during club and be a friend), provide snacks, and pray. You will be trained to do any job you are willing to try. Training will be Saturday, August 28, 9:00 am—12:00 noon at Brushy Creek Baptist Church. All workers need to attend this training. Contact Cyndi Player (963-8633) or Jill Mann (895-3351) to volunteer or for more information.

Letter From The Senior Minister Bible Words

Here's a chance for a little self-quiz. Can you tell the meaning of the following words?

Justification	Sanctification	Regeneration
Atonement	Propitiation	Redemption
Covenant	Mediator	Sin
Faith	Holiness	Election
Incarnation	Trinity	Inspiration

How did you do? Just as important, does it matter how you did? The answer is Yes! These are all either words taken straight from the Bible, or in a few cases, vital theological terms describing Bible truths. Some will object, "All that matters is that I love Jesus!" Okay, but loving Jesus means studying His book. And what does it mean to love Jesus, if we don't really know who He is and what He did?

As a preacher, I work hard to use simple and direct language. It is not my goal in the pulpit to expose the broad range of my vocabulary. But I am unashamed to insist on using Bible words like the ones above. Occasionally, someone will tell me that I should use such "technical" terminology. Many, if not most, preachers have abandoned the use of most of these and other biblical terms. I think this is a terrible mistake and one that is producing a weak faith among believers today.

I have two reasons for continuing to use words like these. The first reason is that they are not too hard for people to understand. Ours is a generation of people who know multiple passwords and a plethora of technical lingo pertaining to computers, televisions, and other appliances. If you know what a gigabyte is, you can know what the atonement is! It is simply not true that ours is a generation that cannot understand technical language – what matters is that we care enough about the subject to learn the terminology.

My second reason is the ideas behind these words are vital to the Christian faith and message. When words die, the ideas linked to them die – and we must not let the ideas expressed by the Bible's words die to us. So we must use these words. We must know what they mean. And we must build our faith upon the truths of these and other words, which express the doctrines taught to us in the Bible. To be a disciple of Jesus is
